Miss VanderKamp:
You have been a swell teacher last year and this year both and I hope you haven't taken everything I have said these last few days too seriously. I'll miss coming to school and seeing you next Year
Margaret.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1948, 50 extremely verdant freshmen entered the halls of Lincoln Hill High. Much anxiety could be seen on our faces for suddenly our lives had become serious and purposeful. Ahead of us lay four years of struggle and toil. Of course no one had told us of the embarrassing confusion we would encounter the first few weeks or the distainful heckling of the sophomores before we finally adjusted ourselves to become part of the student body. Nevertheless, our influence was soon to be felt in the school. Those enrolled were Roger Baglien, Merri Barber, Marvin Bischoff, Dorothy Barneson, Dale Boernke, Eleanor Bratsven, Raymond Bratsven, John Brevik, James Britten, James Call, Janice Castad, Gail Christ, Patricia Crowe, Helen Douglas, Robert Durst, Everett Fox, Albert Frase, Donald Gilbertson, Ronald Goetsch, Albert Gunem, John Hagen, William Jul Hagen, Ardell Hanson, Beverly Harriman, Audrey Hudson, Shirley Isom, Charles Jacobson, Alvin Johnson, Carlee Johnson, Orville Johnson, Robert Johnson, Howard Kittleson, Doreen Krienke, Gordon Larson, Bonie Lowe, Nancy Martinson, Dorothy McPeake, Connie Miller, Wilburn Myers, Gladys Nelson, Dale Olson, Arlene Olson, Lester Peet, Eldon Rau, Helen Severson, Marie Smith, Donald Stewart, Marcel Thoma, Ronald Thomley, and Margaret Yarnall. During the year Raymond Bratsven, Everett Fox, Orville Johnson, Gordon Larson, and James Britten left us but we later welcomed Lauretta Benner to our group. For our class officers we chose Ronald Thomley, president; Alvin Johnson, vice-president; Janice Castad, secretary; and Shirley Isom, treasurer. Mr. Westlund and Mr. Brecklin were our advisors. We couldn't side track our initiation so on October 6th we spent a day of misery. That evening the sophomores made us perform various stunts on the stage for their enjoyment. Afterwards they had a party for us. We also had a return party for them February 2nd. While we were yet freshmen we had the honor of having Shirley Isom chosen as Home Coming Queen.

In 1949 the same group of students returned but how changed they were! As laughing, gay sophomores we felt the world was meant for us alone. How wicked but delightful we felt in harassing that new crop of freshmen. We found that Ronald Anderson Blair Badker, Barvara Brown, Douglas DeGrasse, Maynard Gran, Orlin Larson, and Jerome Nix had joined us. Those who didn't return in the fall or left us during the year were Barbara Brown John Brevik, Eldon Rau, and Ronald Goetsch. The freshmen initiation, that delightful day, took place on Octbber 10th. Even after all we did to them the freshmen gave us a return party a few weeks later. Those who led the class this year were Robert Johnson, as president; Dale Olson, Vice-president; Dorothy McPeake, secretary; and Shirley Isom, treasurer. Mr. Herum served as our advisor.

The Junior year found us a more considerate, thoughtful group with the realization that we had much knowledge yet to gain. This year held our two big events-- the Junior-Senior Prom, April 20th, and the Class Play, March 2nd. Bob Johnson and Merri Barber reigned as King and Queen of the prom with Albert Gunem and Eleanor Bratsven, Howard Kittleson and Dorothy McPeake, Ronald Thomley and Shirley Isom, and Marcel Thoma and Marie Smith as their attendents. The theme "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" was carried out by a rainbow across the hall with a pot of gold at one end and a castle at the other. Dancing was to the music of Jimmy Knight and his orchestra. "Mummy and the Mumps" was the name of our three act comedy. Those who joined our ranks this year were Sally Helgerson and Gloria Scheuermann, but our group was made smaller by the absence of Dale Boernke, Albert Frase, Carlee Johnson, Bonie Lowe, Connie Miller, Dale Olson, and Helen Severson. Mrs. Ward and Miss G. Vander Kamp were our advisors. The officers were James Call, president; Alvin Johnson, vice-president; Shirley Isom, secretary; and Beverly Harriman, treasurer.

At last--the long awaited senior year. The year of dignity and importance with that magical thing called superiority over our under-class-men. There was so much to take up our time such as ordering gowns, invitations, announcements, having our pictures taken, and all those extra things. To help us through the confusion we chose Marvin Bischoff as president; Alvin Johnson, vice-president; Dorothy McPeake, secretary; and Marie Smith, treasurer. Mr. Johnson was our advisor. Our class was increased by Russell Dean and Dean Claflin. Later Russell Dean, Beverly Harriman, and Blair Badker left us. I guess we'll all remember the trip to Eau Claire to see Macbeth and all the fun we had with the measles. The seniors also presented their class play on May 9, under the direction of Miss G. Vander Kamp.

Now we end our days at Lincoln Hill High with its many happy memories and warm friendships and go forth with the motto "Not at the Top, But Climbing."

Class Prophecy

The year is 1962 and I have just completed my survey of the class of 1952 and I must say the findings are very good.

Let us start with the senior class president, Marvin Bischoff. I find Marvin an excellent farmer now that he has Ellen K. at home and does not spend so much time in Fall Creek.

While I am in the neighborhood, I might as well look in on the rest.

I find Dorothy Barneson the Director of the National Reducing Plan, all work and no play.

Douglas DeGrasse is spending his time sleeping and making the former Audrey Hudson, who is head nurse in the Mumps isolation ward at the Foster Hospital, work for her (and his) living.

Lester Peet is still floating around looking for work--that is, when he isn't reading comic books.

Gloria Scheuermann is the author of a new best seller based on her experiences in Jerry's Model "A".

Marcel Thoma, I find, has the former Yvonne H. as a task master. She keeps him occupied as mechanic most of the time, all tho once in a while he catches up on the sleep he lost in his senior year.

Marie Smith and Margaret Yarnall are two very efficient nurses in the new hospital at Foster and are still waiting for their rich, tall, dark, and handsome patient.

Bob Durst is working overtime to get enough to pay for the luxury tax on a "sparkler."

Merri Barber is now Mrs. Ivers and is doing a good job of being a teacher to fill in the time when Ade is in the Navy.

Albert Gunem is selling the new Streamlined, Super Deluxe, Fleetline, Super powered, horseless carriage.

Pat Crowe, Dorothy McPeake and Eleanor Bratsven are still waiting for their Tom, Dick, and Harry to pick them up when they are hitch-hiking home from a dance.

Billy Myers is doing double duty as a champion skier and as the head baker in his new bakery.

I find Doreen Krienke head fudge maker in an Old Maids Home.

Donald Stewart has found the perfict helpmate and has decided between Eau Claire, Augusta, Osseo, and Strum with the victory going to Whitehall.

Gladys Nelson and Arlene Olson are so popular as knitting instructors that they are turning down students for their new knitting school.

Ronnie Anderson is busy helping his Dad in the Electric business--part time, that is-the other part is spent cruising around looking for his perfict help mate.

Helen Douglas is a very efficient librarian at the Osseo library and has gained national fame--who wouldn't after all the hours she spent in the library in high school.

Ardell Hanson, I find, is capitalizing on his ability to play the bass horn as he is now playing in a new but famous band called "The Blatters."

John Hagen has Phyllis M. at home to help him on his large, well kept farm.

Janice Castad is Mrs. Stan Vold and she is having a lot of trouble getting her kids to help her pick strawberries.

Gail Christ has a good farm in Hale that is well stocked with Herefords. I hear Charlotte Steen is the head boss now.

Jul Hagen and Sally Helgerson are a happy couple farming in Hale. Sally's biggest worry is to keep her twelve kids out of the pig pen.

Orlin Larson is the inventor and producer of the streamlined super effective spittball which is sold under the brand name of Ole.

Charles Jacobson has moved back to the farm as there are no Ole's bigger than he in the neighborhood. He has run into some difficulty when he has worked with people with the name Ole.

Howard Kittleson has stopped going to Augusta and is now engaged in farming and is busy keeping the boss happy.

Donald Gilbertson is the new but efficient National Secretary of the FFA, but he still tries to get a little farming done on the side.

Roger Baglien is rapidly acquiring a family to help pick his strawberries and take care of his hens.

To find the rest of the class I must do some hopping around.

Lauretta Benner is busily occupied as Mrs. Rosman and caring for her four little Rosmen's.

Dean Claflin is still looking for his easy job. He's tried all sorts and now he's trying his hand at being a pool hall operator. He has the honor of being unbeaten.

Robert Johnson is the valuable center of the Minneapolis Lakers and has just set a new national record for average points per game.

James Call is the Secretary of the DHIA in Madison with Mrs. Leah Ray Call as his full time personal secretary.

Alvin Johnson is the head buyer for Swift and Company in Chicago with Edith N. busy keeping their kids out of the stock yards.

Nancy Martinson is the featured pianist for the Philharmonic Orchestra playing in New York.

Ronnie Thomley is also in the world's largest city doing a grand job singing at all of the high social events. He recently sang for the President of the United States. The former Shirley Isom also was complimented by the President as she is Ronnie's efficient and capable housekeeper.

Class Will

We the class of '52 of Lincoln Hill High, Corner of Thirteenth and Francis, City of Osseo, Town of Sumner, County of Trempealeau, State of Wisconsin, the Western Hemisphere of the world, East of the Sun, and West of the Moon, being of sane and sound mind call you together to listen to our last will and testament and to receive these gifts we bestow unto you.

I, Ardell Hanson, will my great slimness to Billy Ivers.

To Phyllis Matz, I , Janice Castad, will my ability to choose graduates.

I, Dorothy McPeake, would like to give Phyllis Olson my late hours.

I, Dean Claflin, will my love for cars to anyone who likes to fix them.

Howard Kittleson feels Bobby Perry would like his job of making trips to Augusta two ro three nights a week.

To Mary Ann Thoma, I, Marie Smith, will my ability to work until 4:45 in the morning.

I, Nancy Martinson, feel Grace S. should have my quietness.

Doreen Krienke feels Carol Rindahl might like her ability to stay out until four in the morning.

Ronnie Thomley wills his ability to get to school about five minutes after the bell rings to Dick F.

I, Orlin Larson, will my popularity with the girls to Roger C.

Margaret Yarnall wills her desk to anyone who wants it.

We, Arlene Olson and Gladys Nelson, will our loud talking to Barbara H. and Ivadell K.

I, Gloria Scheuermann, will Shirley L. my good times in a Model "A".

Al Johnson wills his basketball to the next year's team to help make it stronger.

Donald Stewart wills his friendly ways to Jim S.

Douglas DeGrasse wills his ability to get along with red neads to Grace S.

Bill Myers wills his ability to get up and bake to Lavern M.

TEACHERS

To Miss G. Vander Kamp, we the Senior Class will this scissor to cut your hair into a poddle hair cut.

To Mr. Herum we will this can of heet to heat up the Ag. room and his ag. students.

To Mr. Johnson we will this notebook paper to supply next year's seniors with for outlining.

To Miss Schaffer we will this toy shavel to shovel herself out of snow drifts.

To Mrs. Ward we will her this crochet needle for all the stitches she picked up.

To Mr. Kohls we will this bottle of ointment for his sore muscles after Phy. Ed.

To Mrs. Schwartz we will her a box of chalk--for all she wastes pounding knowledge into her students.

To Miss L. Vander Kamp, we will this newspaper for all those that have been torn.

To Mr. Olson we will this pair of suspenders to hold up his pants.

To Mr. Kloster we will this calander to help him keep track of all the birthdays to join next year's birthday parties.

To Mr. Thomley we will a bottle of milk for all that we took for making fudge.

In witness whereof, we the Senior Class of Lincoln Hill High School have to this, our last will and testament subscribed our names ,this 22th day of May, One thousand nine hundred and fifty two.

A three act comedy "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy" directed by Miss G. Vander Kamp was presented on November 9, at the High School Auditorium.

The play takes place in the Good Samaritan Sanitarium. Speedy Marshall gets quite a jolt to find himself accidentally locked up in an asylum, but he meets Lois Meredith and is glad that he is in the asylum. Excitement mounts fast, while a pair of crooks are on hand to pull off a jewel robbery and a kidnapping. Speedy gets to go as fast as he wants to after Lois. It all ends happily when Speedy finds Lois, Edward finds Evelyn Winslow and the jewel robbers are captured.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The scene is a lonely desert hotel between two mountain peaks and on the highest peak, there is an air beacon.

As Slim Higganbottom (Ronnie Thomley) the proprietor of the hotel and tender of the beacon, sits singing his mournful song, the door bursts open, and Ben Lawrence (Jerry Johnson) enters, startling him.

It is pouring rain. Bridges are flooded. Soon the roads will be closed, shutting off all communication to the towns beyond. But that means business for Slim. His first customer is Ben, a ne'er-do-well prospector who seldom has any money or much ambition, but he has a youthful charm that appeals to Slim and to Martha Ward (Charlotte Steen) the pretty, young reaturant owner across the way.

Martha, too, is forced to spend the night in Slim's hotel. Soon there are other patrons: Captain Lowell Cartwright (Jim Call) apparently on a secret mission; then there is Elmira Mabee (Merri Barber) a timid little maiden lady, who seems curious about Slim; Josiah Tuttle (Larry Caucutt) a professorish little man who has a very convenient tendency toward absent-mindedness; Captain Leroy Cartwright (Bob Johnson) has the same name and initials and same military rank as Lowell Cartwright, but the two are unrelated and unknown to each other. Lulu Hugger (Margaret Yarnall) Slim suspects, is a woman from a matrimonial agency; then there is Pedro (Bill Myers) a Mexican who works for Slim.

Money is flowing into the till for Slim but he is uneasy. Recent crack-ups for planes in Utah and the fact that a big army bomber is due to go over the beacon tonight, have made Slim extremely apprehensive for the safety of his beacon. Martha, too, has a strange premonition that something is about to happen. And it does. The beacon is smashed!

The curtain comes down as Ben solves the mystery. Lulu is the villian and is led off for the punishment that she deserves. Elmira is the lady from the matrimonial agency and Slim is in fro it, tho he surely enjoys it.

BASKETBALL

Robert Johnson played center and was the squads leading scorer. Bob had a fine hook shot with either hand and a terrific jump shot, his team play was also fine for he passed off to either Thomely and Fitch whenever it was possible to draw the defense to him. Bob was elected captain and did a fine job of guiding the team.

Alvin Johnson was the smallest member of the team, but we can all say that he had more than enough spirit for ten twice his size. Al sacrificed personal scoring glory for team play and did a wonderful job.

Ronnie Anderson was a very fine guard on both defense and offense. Ron was responsible for a great deal of the feeding done so the front line could score, he was a mighty fine shot himself. Ronnie's determination to do well helped the team to gain a sectional berth at Menomonie. We will miss him, for fine guards are a scarce item.

Ronnie Thomely was the teams best all around player, he did a fine job of ball handing, rebounding and helped a great deal with his fine scoring. The team missed Ron in the sectional meet at Menomonie, because of the sprained ankle he received in the district play-off. Ronnie is a fine college prospect.

Al Gunem was a reserve forward and guard. Al could be counted upon in doing a fine job in relieving the first five, his speed and elusiveness made him a threat at all times.

Charles Jacobson played reserve forward and center. Chuck played an aggressive game of basketball, his spirit and determination made him a valued reserve.

INDIVIDUAL SENIORS

Ronnie Anderson was one of the stalwarts in the offensive and defensive platoons. Ronnie played a hard and aggressive game at his tackle post, causing many opponents a great deal of trouble when they tried to run over his position. Ronnie leaves a big pair of shoes to be filled by next years football squad.

Gail Christ was not a regular, but when he was called upon to fill in at end, did a very fine job. Gail worked hard to strengthen this year's football team by his rugged play in inter-squad scrimmages.

Douglas DeGrasse played a mighty fine game of football from a halfback position. He was one of the squads leading ground gainers with his elusiveness in running the ends, but his greatest value to this years squad was his play at safety. No opponents were able to complete a pass in his territory.

Albert Gunem was a fine hard charging guard who earned a starting position on the first eleven, only to break his arm in the first game at Black River Falls. The team missed his aggressiveness and the football squad of next year will miss his spirit.

Charles Jacobson played a terrific game of football from his fullback post. Chuck was a back who loved contact and when there was short yardage to be made through the middle, he could be counted upon to make it. Chuck played a fine defensive end on the defensive platoon and was elected captain for his fine team play.

Howard Kittleson was the smallest man in the line, but what he lacked in size he made up for in heart and spirit. Howie was a fine offensive guard and did a beautiful job in opening the holes for the backs.

Donald Stewart was the speed in the back-field and in the last ballgame of the year opened up to show everyone how fast he really was. Don set a record of 104 yards in running back an intercepted pass against Whitehall. He also added 209 more yards to that from the line of scrimmage to be the outstanding player on the field that night. We will all miss Don's speed and determination next year.

Marcel Thoma was a tackle and could always be counted upon to do his best at all times. Marcel was not large for a tackle but made up his lack of size by being aggressive and quick. He loved to catch the opponent runners in their backfield and accomplished it many times.

Ronald Thomely developed into one of the finest offensive ends in the conference, his pass snaring was one of the main reasons of why our ground game worked as well as it did. Ronnie will be sorely missed by the next years squad for he was a fine team member and hard worker.

John Hagen was another Senior who had hard luck, he began the season as first string center. In the first game of the season at Black River Falls, he tore the cartlige in his knee and was out for the season. The team missed him very much for the remainder of the season.

CLASS SONG

Tune: Halls of Ivy

Oh! we loves the Halls of Osseo
That surround us here today
And we will not forget tho' we be far far away.

To the hallow'd Halls of Osseo
Every voice will bid farewell,
And shimmer off in twilight
Like the old vesper bell.

One day a hush will fall,
The footsteps of us all
Will echo down the hall and disappear;
But, as we sadly start our journeys far apart
A part of every heart will linger here.

In the sacred Halls of Osseo
Where we lived and learned to know,
That thru the years we'll see you in the sweet after glow.

Dear Miss Vander Kamp:
I sure won't forget
all the fun I've had working for you but the Junior Red Cross
in every thing you do.
One of those Junior Girls.
Marie Batterson

Dear Miss Vander Kamp:
It's been fun being in your class. Best of luck and hope you have a good time this summer
Jeanette C.

Dear Miss Vander Kamp:
It sure has been fun in your English class even if you did try to make us study.

Pono:

Miss Vanderkamp:

It has really been swell having you for a teacher this year, and I hope I can look forward to seeing you again next year.

a Sophomore Student
Faye Claflin

Dear Miss VandKamp,

We sure had a lot of fun working on the class play didn't we. (I hope you didn't I did!) I hope you're my English teacher again next year so I can heckle you again. I still say I don't like grammar but I do like literature. Be a good girl this summer.

Lucy Caucutt
"Mr. Jodie Tuttle"

Dear Miss Vander Kamp-

I'm going clear back here on the last page to wish you a well deserved vacation after having to coop with us this year.

Really though Miss Vander Kamp, in spite of the ups and downs and misunderstandings we've had, I honestly enjoyed your class and even more working under you at play practice.

I sincerely hope that things will be smoother and not quite so many complications will arise for you.

I would like to hear from you next year when I'm in College and slaving away again at English.

Maybe I should quit before I have one of your famous themes all written without intending to.

This may not sound like me but I will miss class very much and I surely wish I could come back next year.

I hope I haven't written anything too bad so you'll have to rip this page out.

Best of Luck in everything you do.

A friend (no longer a student).

Mimi
